The executive council shall adopt guidelines to govern the filing and consideration of such applications. The dues for associate AFT members shall be determined by the AFT executive council.

Powers

Section 15. (d) Powers of the Administrator. The administrator will report to the president or his or her designee and will be authorized to take full charge of the affairs of the local or state affiliate and to take such actions as are necessary to protect the interests of the membership. Where required, such authority shall include:

- (i) supervising the local or state affiliate's employees and other representatives;
- (ii) taking possession of the books, records, funds and other assets of the state or local federation; and

- (iii) suspending officers and staff of the local or state federation for the duration of the administratorship.

Section 15. (e) Termination of Administratorship. The executive council shall terminate an administratorship as soon as the cause for its establishment has been remedied. Where officer positions have been vacated as a result of the administratorship, then, prior to the termination of an administratorship, an administrator shall conduct an election in accordance with the applicable provisions of the governing documents of the affected local or state federation and the AFT constitution to fill such positions. Such officers will take office as of the date of the termination of the administratorship. At such time, an administrator shall also return control of the books, records, funds and other assets to the local or state federation.

Representation

Election of Delegates

Section 1. (a) Delegates and/or alternates to the convention from a local or retiree organization shall be elected by secret ballot. Members of each local must be given suitable opportunity to nominate candidates for the office of delegate and alternate. Notice of the right to make nominations must be sent to each member or given a prominent place in the local publication and on bulletin boards. Notice of the right to make nominations and notice of the election may be combined in one notice. Written notice announcing the time and place of election of delegates must be mailed to each member at least 15 days prior to the election. The results of the election must be published and the ballots kept for one year.

Councils of Locals

Section 1. (b) Locals with fewer than 100 members each, but in the aggregate fewer than 300 members from a contiguous geographic area, may form councils of locals for the exclusive purpose of electing a common delegate to the convention. Locals that form such a council under this section: (1) shall adopt a common resolution to establish the council in a regular meeting of such local no later than four months prior to the convention; (2) thereafter shall provide notice of nominations and elections to each member, as set forth in Section 1(a) above, to be the council's delegate to the convention; (3) shall elect at a meeting of each such local or by mail ballot agreed to by all locals in the council and in conformity with federal law no later than three months prior to the convention a delegate and alternate, if any, by a secret ballot common to each local in the council listing all nominees and their local numbers, the nominee receiving the highest number of votes totaled among all locals in the council to be the delegate, and the second highest, if any, the alternate; (4) shall forward properly signed credentials from each local in the council for the duly elected delegate and alternate, if any, of the council in time to reach the national office no later than two months prior to the convention; and (5) the executive council shall approve procedures consistent with the requirements of this section for the election of the council delegate. The secretary-treasurer shall forward such procedures to all locals reporting fewer than 100 members in per capita and to all state federations seven months prior to the convention. No local participating in the council shall have any other delegates seated in the convention. The voting strength of the council's delegate shall be based on the aggregate of the members in the locals that credential the council's delegate.

This section shall also authorize the executive council to recognize a council of locals organized for the convenience of doing business with one employer common to all of the council's locals for the purpose of electing delegates to the convention. Nomination procedures shall be established by such council to permit all such locals to nominate from their respective memberships at least 30 days in advance of the election, which shall be conducted by mail ballot in conformance with federal law. The election of such council's delegates shall be further subject to the provisions of Article VIII, Section 2, of this constitution, provided that no other delegates shall be seated in the convention from any individual local of the council unless such local has notified the national office three months prior to convention that it is not participating in such council for the purposes of electing delegates to the convention. The voting strength of such council shall be based upon the aggregate membership of all such locals that individually credential all delegates common to the council.

Section 1. (c) Delegates and alternates of state federations shall be nominated and elected according to its constitution, provided that the delegates to the state convention are themselves nominated and elected by secret ballot as herein provided in Section 1(a) of this article,

When a roll-call vote has been ordered, the presiding officer shall at once call for the next item on the agenda, action on the pending motion being automatically postponed pending the tabulation of the results of the roll-call vote. No debate, amendment or other motion affecting the question on which the roll-call vote was ordered may

The constitutional amendments committee shall report only the proposed amendments that it recommends for adoption, with or without amendments. At the conclusion or immediately after the conclusion of the committee's full report, any delegate may move adoption of a proposed amendment not recommended by the committee. The chair shall allow one statement for the proposed amendment and one statement against the proposed amendment. The chair shall then immediately put the question of whether the convention desires to debate the proposed amendment. If this motion prevails by a one-third vote, the proposed amendment shall be before the convention.

Affiliate Audit and Financial Review Requirements

Affiliate
Audits

Section 1. Effective January 1, 2005, AFT affiliates with ~~1,000~~2,500 or more members, excluding retirees, are required to submit to the AFT annually, and within six months of the close of the affiliate's fiscal year, an audit of its financial statements—in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards—by an independent CPA whose firm does not have responsibility for the affiliate's regular bookkeeping or for preparation of its routine financial statements. The audit must be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Appended to the audit submission must be a letter signed by the affiliate's principal officer and the auditor certifying that the audit has been presented at a specified regular or special meeting of the affiliate's governing body and published and made available to the members.

Section 2. AFT affiliates with 1,000 but fewer than 2,500 members, excluding retirees, are required to submit to the AFT annually, and within six months of the close of the affiliate's fiscal year, an audit or a review of its financial statements—in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards—by an independent CPA whose firm does not have responsibility for the affiliate's regular bookkeeping or for preparation of its routine financial statements. The audit or the review must be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Appended to the audit or the review submission must be a letter signed by the affiliate's principal officer and the CPA certifying that the audit or the review has been presented at a specified regular or special meeting of the affiliate's governing body and published and made available to the members. If financial irregularity or financial misfeasance is indicated, the three full-time AFT officers may require an affiliate to submit an audit, rather than a review. If an affiliate is notified that it must submit an audit, the requirement to do so shall remain in place until the three full-time AFT officers inform the affiliate that it is no longer required.

Section 23. Effective January 1, 2005, AFT affiliates with fewer than 1,000 members, excluding retirees, are required to submit to the AFT annually, and within six months of the close of the affiliate's fiscal year, an audit of its financial statements by an independent CPA in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, or a financial review of the affiliate's financial statements conducted by an internal audit committee in accordance with AFT guidelines for audit committees. Appended to the audit or financial review must be a signed certification by the affiliate's principal officer that the current audit or financial review has been presented at a specified regular or special meeting of the affiliate's governing body and published and made available to the members.

Section 34. Where a required audit, independent CPA review or financial review has not been performed and received by the AFT within six months of the close of an affiliate's fiscal year, the AFT president is authorized to have the applicable audit, independent CPA review or financial review, pursuant to Section 1, ~~or 2~~ or 3 of this Article, conducted at the affiliate's expense. Such ~~an~~ review/analysis will include an examination of the financial records and a reporting of the results to the membership of the affiliate and to the AFT executive council.

ARTICLE X

Good Standing

Section 1. To be in good standing in the AFT, affiliates must meet the following requirements:

(a) payment of per capita to the AFT on all members, with arrears not to exceed two months, and to the applicable state federation consistent with its constitution;

(b) current in submission of the affiliate's annual audit or financial review in keeping with Sections 1 and 2 of Article IX of the AFT bylaws;

(c) current in submission to the AFT of names and addresses for the principal executive and financial officers;

(d) current in submission to the AFT of the names and addresses of current members of the affiliate's executive board;

(e) current in submission of a membership roster; and

(f) current in submission of a copy of the affiliate's up-to-date constitution.

Section 2. Only affiliates in good standing shall be eligible for:

(a) representation at the AFT convention. In order to satisfy such good-standing requirements and in addition to the deadlines otherwise set forth in the AFT constitution and bylaws, each affiliate must provide the AFT with the information required in paragraphs 1(b)-(f) above no later than 30 days prior to the opening date of the convention.

(b) participation in the AFT Occupational Liability program;

(c) coverage under the AFT Militancy/Defense Fund; and

(d) participation in programs that include staff and financial assistance from the AFT.
